

Uniqlo – Fair & Speed Interviews

About Us

Company information

The Fast Retailing Group's mainstay brand, UNIQLO's overriding aim is to create comfortable everyday clothes that enrich peoples' lives. UNIQLO LifeWear is completely different to what other apparel brands are offering. It is a new, unique category of truly great clothing, offering high-quality, and fashionable everyday items.

In 2017, UNIQLO has expanded to over 830 stores in Japan and 950 stores in international markets. In addition to Japan, Greater China (Mainland China, Hong Kong and Taiwan) and Southeast Asia markets are likely to be the primary drivers of future growth. By adding 100 stores annually, the size of the Greater China network will soon overtake Japan and reach our initial target of 1,000 stores.

UNIQLO's European operation is now profitable. Over the next two or three years, we are looking to double the number of UNIQLO store in Europe, currently around 40. We will continue to embrace the local culture and historical backgrounds at each individual stores attentively, so that we can build strong and trusting relationship with respective customers and the local communities.
