

Zalando – ICE FAIR & SPEED INTERVIEWS

About Us

As Zalando transforms from Europe's leading e-commerce company into a multi-service platform for fashion, this is an exciting time to join us. We offer our customers a one-stop, convenient shopping experience with an extensive selection of fashion articles including shoes, apparel and accessories, with free delivery and returns. Our assortment of over 2,000 international brands ranges from popular global brands, fast fashion and local brands, and is complemented by our private label products. Our localized offering addresses the distinct preferences of our customers in each of the 17 European markets we serve. We believe that our integration of fashion, operations and online technology give us the capability to deliver a compelling value proposition to both our customers and fashion brand partners.

We're constantly reinventing our products, our services and ourselves. That's how we identify and remove the barriers to inspiration and empowerment, as they emerge, letting technology and creativity set the pace.

What we look for

We're looking for enthusiastic and hard-working students and graduates who are not afraid to take risks and think outside of the box. In addition to the hard-skills that are specific to the role, we look for team-players who use data to make decisions.

What we offer

Our workplace runs on trust, empowerment and feedback; you'll find a positive, inspiring working atmosphere with mentoring and personal development opportunities and an international team of experts. In addition, there are discounts from external partners; you'll have centrally located offices, public transport discounts, municipality services, flexible working times, free beverages and fruits, diverse sports and health offerings. Our internships are paid.
