Recruiting the very best people with the right skills and mindset means that businesses will become more innovative, sustainable and buoyant in an increasingly competitive corporate world.

The competition for talent is one of the biggest challenges facing global business today. You need professionals who have the abilities to connect with others, lead across regional and cultural differences, and navigate confidently through rapid organisational changes. RSM gives companies direct access to some of the brightest and freshest minds in global business; those taking part in our bachelor, master and MBA programmes. Bring RSM's source of world-class talent to your organisation – come and meet our students!

- » RSM's bachelor students are young business professionals with innovative ideas to use as they join the labour market.
- » RSM's master students possess the essential skills to identify and capitalise on business developments.
- » RSM's MBA students have the leadership skills and specialist knowledge to lead organisations through changes and future developments.
- » Average levels of work experience:
  - bachelor and master students 0 – 3 years
  - full-time MBA students 3 – 8 years
  - part-time executive MBA students 8 – 13 years.

An impression of RSM students and graduates

RSM students don't wait until graduation to actively seek jobs. There are many ways for your organisation to get in touch with students at the Netherlands' top business school.

- » Over 7,000 bachelor and master students and 420 MBA students are eager to share their knowledge and skills with organisations across the world.
- » Some of the world's most highly talented business students, who represent more than 110 nationalities, have the skills to spread their global corporate and intercultural experiences.
- » About 40,000 RSM alumni work across various industries and in every business sector worldwide.

Meet and recruit our students

Get to know our students one-on-one

Present your company and its activities, projects or successes to our students through a company presentation, workshop or case study. Alternatively, invite RSM students to visit your business at any time; or become part of their RSM studies through guest lectures or consultancy projects.

See our students at work

Consultancy projects are an opportunity to ask our bachelor, master and MBA students to address your business challenges. We also organise internships for RSM students at various levels; an opportunity to get to know a prospective employee, and find out how well they fit into your organisation.

Present yourself

Take part in one of our annual career fairs, hosted by the RSM Career Centre for bachelor, master and MBA students.

Go straight to the source

Find your future employees through our students, graduates and employees. Post your vacancies for internships and full- and part-time jobs on the RSM Career Portal.
