

RSM MSC CAREER MAP

Showing the most common career paths of recent graduates per master, based on the MSc Employment Report 2016

Contact Career Services: careerservices@rsm.nl; +31 (0)10 408 2888

- ▶ Per MSc programme you can see the most common industries, type of employers and type of jobs where students end up after graduation.
- ▶ This data is based on the MSc Employment Survey 2016.
- ▶ Large corporates are defined as companies with more than 250 employees, including banks and FMCG if not mentioned separately.

FMCG is defined as companies in the Fast Moving Consumer Goods industry. Banks are defined as financial institutes where individuals or companies can borrow money. SME's are defined as companies with 1 – 250 employees, which can also include start-ups. Large consultancy are defined as consultancy firms with more than 250 employees, including the Big 4 accountancy/consultancy firms if not mentioned separately. Big 4 accountancy/consultancy firms are PwC, Deloitte, EY and KPMG. Small consultancy are defined as consultancy firms with 1 – 250 employees. NGO is defined as Non Governmental Organisational not aiming to gain profit.

