

Philips – ICE FAIR & SPEED INTERVIEWS

About Us

At Philips, we look beyond technology to the experiences of consumers, patients, providers and caregivers across the health continuum – from healthy living and prevention to diagnosis, treatment and home care. We unlock insights to develop leading solutions that enable improved care at lower cost. With leading research, design and innovation capabilities, we partner with customers to transform the delivery of healthcare.

What we look for

We are looking for self-starters with an entrepreneurial spirit and people who have a drive and passion for being successful. Of course you need to have excellent inter-personal and communication skills, so you can connect with colleagues at all ranks in the organization. Due to the international environment we are in, we need people with an international mindset and the ability to speak and write fluent English besides of your mother tongue.

What we offer

Challenging and satisfying work, inspiring colleagues, multi-disciplinary teams, extensive learning resources, the scope to flourish, involvement with meaningful products and solutions. Working at Philips means all this and much more. What you also encounter as a Philips employee is a significant element of the unexpected. Your career may take a surprising direction. You may be presented with opportunities you never dreamt of having or you may discover that the impact of the work that you do is far greater than you could ever have imagined. In addition to on-the-job learning, you will receive coaching, mentoring as and formal training.

So whether you are looking for an internship, a trainee position or a regular graduate job we have got some extraordinary challenges lined up for you!
