

My checklist – Master Exchange

Before selection (October 2022 – January 2023)

- Attend the Studying and Internships Abroad Fair and Master exchange information session, annually organized in October. Announcements on this fair will be made on this website, Canvas course RSM Master Exchange and through SIN-online
- Read this website: Master Exchange especially the section “Getting started” before you start filling out the application form. First check if you are eligible for an exchange.
- Enroll yourself for Canvas course RSM Master Exchange to find information on all schools and reports from former exchange students, see again website, under section “Destinations”, “How to choose the exchange destination?”
- Check this website: Partner Schools to find the entry requirements (GPA, language) per school
- If applicable to your top 3 of schools, register for TOEFL, IELTS or B2 CEFR, see also www.toefl.org or www.ielts.org or EUR Language Training Centre.
- The online application is open from October 1, 2022 onwards, save your information every time you entered new. See also: <https://apply-exchange.rsm.nl/welcome>
- Deadline to submit your application is January 6, 2023 till 23.59 h. After that time, the system will close automatically.

At the time of selection (January – February 2023)

- Students who are not eligible for the master exchange will receive an email before mid-January.
- For those eligible, check your student email account for the date and time of your online interview.
- End of January – beginning of February: 10 minutes Online interviews

- February 16 or 17, 2023, the results of the selection will be announced to you.
- If you an exchange offer received, one has to accept or decline in 5 days.
- Between February – May: the International Office nominates all selected students at the partner school.
- April 2023: a festive Selection Drink for all selected Bachelor and Master students will be organized. As wellll can you meet students who are currently doing their exchange at RSM and are studying at the same school you are going to.
- April/May2023: Pre-departure Session, you will be automatically invited.
- June/July: information on scholarships (Erasmus+, RSM Master exchange) will follow.